The Hymns of the Rig-Veda, in the Samhita and Pada Text, by Professor F. Max Müller, M.A., in two Volumes. Price Rs 24, packing and postage, Re 1-12

* The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the schools and colleges in India, and though at present a scholar-like knowledge of the Vedic hymns is in the examinations required of the more advanced students only, yet, as on so editions, translations, grammars and dictionaries shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface.

Advertisements.

N.B.—Advertisements, Notices, &c. intended for insertion in this part of the Gazette cannot be received after Noon on Monday.

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the Condition of Sale below, to the under-mentioned estate, situated in the district of Purneah, will be put up to sale at the Purneah Collectorate on Saturday, the 5th June 1875, corresponding with 28th Jaisir 1282 B.S. and 16th Jaisir 1282 P.S.

The purchasers will be subject to the following conditions of sale:—

1st.—The purchaser of this estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, the only right reserved by Government being the right of revising the jumma at the conclusion of the term of the present settlement, and on the expiration of all future settlements. If on resettlement he should refuse to engage, he will be entitled to malkana.

The estate will be sold, subject, up to the expiry of the existing settlement in the year ending 31st March 1902 A.D., to the Government revenue against it, to the highest bidder above the upset price.

2nd.—The sale to be subject to existing leases, and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings and by the laws in force; the purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the revenue authorities.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount to be paid at once.

4th.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the 15th (fifteenth) day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be again put up to sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

Bombay,—MESSRS. THACKER, VINING & CO.

Lahore,—MR. W. BAILL, BOOKSELLER AND STATIONER.

N.B.—Maps are not sold at the Office of the Surveyor-General of India, Calcutta, but applications for maps on payment should be made to Agents. This Department only issues maps, free of charge, on the Public Service. It is particularly requested that the nearest local Agent as above be first applied to for any map required on the Public Service before indenting on this Department. The cost of postage of parcels must be borne by applicants themselves, as also such incidental charges as may be incurred at their request for mounting and binding maps. The best maps are invariably supplied in lieu of those asked for, which may not be available, and lists of all newly-published maps are periodically notified in the Gazettes of India and of local Governments.

* The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the schools and colleges in India, and though at present the knowledge of the Vedic hymns is in the estimation required of the more advanced students only, yet as soon as editions, translations, commentaries, and discussions shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface.
